Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The Prior Art of Record do not anticipate nor do they reasonably suggest the apparatus for dispensing and cutting measured amounts from a roll of web material as claimed in claims 1 and 11. The closest prior art, Shelley '331 (US 1,553,331), teaches a paper towel vending machine comprising many of the claimed elements including, inter alia, a roll carrier (e.g. 20, 21); a rotatable drum (23); and a rotatable cutting mechanism (e.g. 33, 36). Figs. 3-6. However, Shelley '331's cutting mechanism does not rotate with respect to the rotational arc of the drum as claimed. In Shelley '331, the cutting mechanism is rotated three times (for a complete revolution) by intermittent engagement of the pins (31) on the drum with the blade (33) cutting on the third turn. It may be said that Shelley '331's cutting mechanism is disengaged and stationary during the interim between turns, but Shelley '331's teachings still lack the requirement that the disengaged and stationary state occurs during the remainder of the complete rotational arc of the drum. In other words, the claims require a portion of the drum's complete rotational arc to engage and move the cutting mechanism, and the remainder is left for the non-engagement of the same. Even if the interim between rotations in Shelley '331 is broadly construed to meet the limitations of the rotational arc relationships mentioned supra, Shelley '331 lacks the claimed requirement for rotation of the cutting mechanism to be less than the full revolution of rotational arc of the drum. Thus, since Shelley '331 lacks the above mentioned rotational relationships between the drum and the cutting mechanism in combination with the other claimed elements of the claims, and since the other prior art of record lacks any teaching or suggestion to modify Shelley

'331 with the claimed rotational relationships, it is the Examiner's opinion that the claimed invention is allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. It is noted that an informal Examiner's Amendment was made to delete the reference numeral "68" in Amendment A, Paper No. 5, filed on November 6, 2002, substitute paragraph on p. 7 and ending on p. 8, l. 9; and specification, p. 9, l. 2.

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Charles Goodman whose telephone number is (703) 308-0501. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday between 7:30 AM to 6:00 PM EST.
